Bill of Lading · Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

Merchant: means the party named on page 2 of this Bill of Lading.
Carrier: means the party named on page 2 of this Bill of Lading.
Freight: means the charges payable by the Merchant to the Carrier.
Container: means a container or container unit, as defined in the International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for the Contract of Carriage by Sea of 1968, as amended by the Protocol of 1974.

2. Bills of Lading

2.1. No bill of lading shall be issued prior to the loading of the Goods onto the Vessel. Any bill of lading issued prior to the loading of the Goods onto the Vessel shall be considered as a conditional bill of lading, and shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

2.2. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of such opening, unpacking, inspection or repacking of the Goods, unless the goods have been left unattended in a place not under the control of the Carrier.

3. Goods

Goods shall mean all kinds of cargo, including but not limited to cargo shipped in packages, in bulk, in bags, in drums, in containers, or in any other manner, except as specified in this Bill of Lading.

4. Carrier and Merchant

4.1. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of the violation of the ISPS Code by the Merchant.

5. Liability

5.1. The Merchant shall be responsible for the costs of such storage, as well as detention and demurrage, and shall indemnify the Carrier in respect of any such sums.

6. Seaport-Loaded Container

6.1. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of such opening, unpacking, inspection or repacking of the Goods, unless the goods have been left unattended in a place not under the control of the Carrier.

7. Summary Liability Provisions

7.1. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of the violation of the ISPS Code by the Merchant.
