Accurate Invoicing

What does this Quality Promise mean?

We have set ourselves the goal to provide our customers an accurate invoice at least 97 percent of the time.

What is in it for you?

When Hapag-Lloyd issues an invoice to you, we promise that it will be accurate and reflect the amount that had been mutually agreed. We believe that high transparency regarding your transportation costs can help you in your financial planning as well as in assessing the risk of potential revenue leakages resulting from incorrect invoicing. As a result, you will have more time to focus on processing invoices for payment rather than for corrections.

Where do we need your close collaboration?

To help us deliver, we need you to commit to providing accurate and complete data inputs for invoice completion.

Loaded as Booked

Our Quality Promise to you?

We have set ourselves the goal to load at least 95 percent of our customers' containers as per booking confirmation.

What does this Quality Promise mean?

When Hapag-Lloyd handles your cargo, we promise that it will be loaded at first load port on a voyage as per your booking confirmation. We also commit to proactively communicating with you and informing you in a timely manner about contingency plans whenever anything unexpected happens with your shipment.

What is in it for you?

We understand that missed loadings only bring downsides for you, such as delayed cargo, more administrative work and additional commercial costs. We will be sparing you these headaches and inconveniences by loading your cargo as booked in 95 percent of the cases or more. We will significantly lower the number of rolls, improve your supply chain flow, boost your planning security and reduce administrative work related to rolled cargo. As a result, you will not only save time you can devote to other important tasks, but also money through reduced commercial costs and liabilities. And you will be able to safeguard your reputation as a reliable logistics/business partner.

Where do we need your close collaboration?

To help us deliver, we rely on your good cooperation in gating-in your full containers as per agreement in the booking confirmations' terms and conditions.

Quality Promise

Volume Agreements Honored

Our Quality Promise to you?

We have set ourselves the goal to confirm your bookings in at least 90 percent of the volumes agreed.

What does this quality promise mean?

We mutually agree on volume delivery for a specific period of time, linked to a geographical scope (whenever possible). We regard our Volume Agreements as an agreement with clear commitments and outlined consequences* for both Hapag-Lloyd and the customer in case of delivery failure from either side.

What is in it for you?

We offer you a much higher certainty that your planned volume will be accepted and fewer bookings rejected, and allow you a more efficient planning due to high confidence in your cargo flow with us, which will result in significant cost savings. By providing full transparency with this promise, we establish a solid base for a continuous data-driven dialogue about our performance on our mutual commitments.

Where do we need your close collaboration?

To help us deliver, we need you to fulfil your part of the volume agreement and place bookings up to the agreed volume as scheduled beforehand.

* Consequences for non-delivery will be implemented after both sides have adapted to the new arrangements and the time is right to strengthen our mutual commitment. Should we be required to take action, we would introduce and discuss possible measures in our regular data-driven reviews.

Quality Promise

Schedule Reliability

Our Quality Promise to you?

We aim to offer more transparency on our schedule reliability, to increase our vessels' on-time performance and to maintain our current ranking among the top third of the 15 largest carriers in terms of schedule reliability (as reported in the monthly Sea-Intelligence Global Liner Performance Report). We intend to further improve our schedule reliability in 2022 and beyond.

What does this quality promise mean?

We commit ourselves to provide full visibility on the punctuality of our vessels. At the same time, we are working hard to enhance our schedule reliability and therefore, in a first approach, to reduce the average delay of our vessels. We will focus on ensuring that the ships arrive on or within a day of the estimated time of arrival. In order to achieve measurable improvements in our on-time performance, we are making far-reaching changes to many operational processes including cooperation with terminals, ports and on-shore partners.

What is in it for you?

While we proceed to increase the standard of our schedule services, we are enhancing the transparency on our vessels' arrival times. Due to modifications to our voyage management system, customers will get faster and more accurate updates on vessel arrivals and container pick-up times. They will benefit from better and pro-active information should there be any schedule changes during their cargo's journey. More advanced supply-chain integrity can help them to improve management of their maritime supply chains, reduce costs and working effort – and save time. How we are delivering on our schedule reliability based on global, trade, country and port-pair combinations will be visible on our Quality Promise Customer Dashboard.

Where do we need your close collaboration?

To help us deliver, we rely on our customers to deliver their cargo or make it available for pick-up as booked and on time and to request Change of Destination (CoD) prior to loading and/or vessel departure.
