

STORAGE AT TRANSIT PORT (STI) CHARGES FOR EMERGENCY CONTINGENCY ROUTINGS

Dear valued customer,

As a result of the ongoing operational disruptions affecting certain Middle East trade corridors, some shipments destined for Upper Gulf locations have been discharged and temporarily stored at designated emergency transit ports to ensure the continued movement and safeguarding of cargo.

In accordance with Clause 16 (Methods and Routes of Carriage) and Clause 17 (Matters Affecting Performance) of Hapag-Lloyd's Bill of Lading Terms and Conditions, the Carrier may discharge, store, handle, or transport cargo via alternative ports or routes where circumstances beyond the Carrier's control affect the planned carriage.

Below storage charges may apply for the duration the containers remain at the emergency transit port(s).
